Milk Producers Organisation

Quarter 2 2013/2013 (April 2013 till June 2013)

Project goals

Goal 1 - AgriSeta accredited skills programme: Dairy Production

Achievements

Number of courses presented: 12
Number of students trained: 185 (Farm workers: 129, Emerging farmers: 59)
Number of students certified competent: 177
Provinces where courses were conducted: North West, Eastern Cape, Limpopo, Western Cape, Gauteng, KZN

Non-achievements / underperformance

Students not completed the assessment: 8

Reasons for non-achievements / underperformance

Students did not participate in the course assessment on own descretion. Some students however did not attend all the course days and could therefor not be assessed.

Planned remedies for non-achievements / underperformance

The farmer is informed regarding students who did not complete the programme due to either reluctance or other valid reasons. Students who failed the assessment will be re-assessed upon request. Both farmer and students are informed regarding the re-assessment policy.

Goal 3 - AgriSeta accredited skills programme: Artificial Insemination

Achievements

Number of courses presented: 2
Number of students trained: 17 (Farm workers: 17)
Number of students certified competent: 10
Provinces where courses were conducted: North West, Limpopo

Non-achievements / underperformance

A number of seven (7) students failed the Artificial Insemination assessment.

Reasons for non-achievements / underperformance

In general there is a higher failing rate in Artificial Insemination as this is a highly specialised course requiring exact skills. Students can also not be assessed if the required competency level to perform artificial insemination has not been met.

Planned remedies for non-achievements / underperformance

Students who failed the assessment will be re-assessed upon requests. Both the farmer and the students are informed regarding the re-assessment policy.
