Goal 10 - Make information about documents produced by the IDF (Bulletins, Standards and Newsletters) available to levy payers and the general public by publishing the titles on the Milk SA website and in The Dairy Mail and Milk Essay

Achievements

No Standards or Bulletins were received during this quarter. There were, however, 23 e-mails of newsworthy nature that were received from IDF.

Fifteen of these were about the EAT-Lancet report that was released on 17 January. The EAT-Lancet Commission on Food, Planet, Health, is an international panel seeking consensus on a roadmap for sustainable food systems. A lot of the 'well-known' vegan / anti-meat / anti livestock production narrative; "Stop eating meat / dairy to save your health and to save our planet" is found in the report but recognition was given that dairy is part of sustainable diets. The report suggests "moderate consumption" of dairy – 250 grams a day. Later e-mails from IDF indicated that the EAT-Lancet report was not getting the media and other attention that was expected. At one of the launching events of the report at the WHO, Italy opposed the report as among others they feel that: "A standard diet for the whole planet, regardless of the age, sex, metabolism, general state of health and eating habits of each person, has no scientific justification at all. Moreover, it would mean the destruction of millenary healthy traditional diets which are a full part of the cultural heritage and social harmony in many countries." Further developments will be watched

The other eight news e-mails were:

A Dairy Sustainability Framework(DSF) Newsletter covering a report on DSF Members' Meeting in Korea, Carbon Sequestration and the Dairy Sector, Indicator Baseline Development, Materiality Briefing Paper, DSF Annual Review, COP24 - Launch of the FAO Report and Northern Ireland Sustainability Report.

IDF Announcement about the Updated Inventory of Microbial Food Cultures.

Expert recruitment by IDF for the work stream on solid waste management.

An announcement of the last chance for early bird registration for the 2019 IDF Mastitis Conference.

A Press Release on IDF'S DG named 2019 chair of the FAO livestock environmental assessment and performance partnership (LEAP)

A Press Release about a request to IDF to join new H2020 consortium to reduce antibiotic resistance

The two Press Releases will be posted on the Milk SA website.
